Would Your Family Be Ready?

Practical steps to prepare your loved ones for life's unexpected moments

No one likes to think about the unexpected, but taking a few simple steps today can make a world of difference for the people you love tomorrow.

EPISODE SUMMARY

In this episode, Roy Hucke and Jeremy Scott continue their conversation on preparing for life's unexpected moments by exploring the practical side of readiness. Drawing from Jeremy's personal experience after losing his wife, they discuss the financial, digital, and everyday responsibilities that are often overlooked until it's too late.

From passwords and account access to vehicle titles, medical records, and household responsibilities, this episode highlights the importance of making sure both spouses know how to navigate every aspect of life, not just the finances. Whether you're newly married, raising children, empty nesters, or helping aging parents, this conversation offers practical steps to help your family be better prepared for whatever the future may bring.
